Czech Language Course for Ph.D. Students A2/B1

The Preparatory Course of the Czech Language for Ph.D. Examination A2/B1 is intended for those who have already learned the basics of Czech at beginner university courses or elsewhere and wish to improve their grammar and vocabulary and practise their communication skills. The course will build upon the essentials of the language by deepening the acquired knowledge of grammar, introducing new vocabulary, and practising more complex communication situations. The course will also introduce academic Czech and help prepare for the Ph.D. exam.

The course includes ten 90-minute classes and can be attended for a fee of CZK 1,700.-.

Before payment, contact the course lecturer by email for registration and wait for the lecturer's response.

The fee is non-negotiable and will be paid by bank transfer before the start of the course to the account: 500022222/0800, variable symbol: 112022. Enter your family name and the name of the course in the "Message for recipient" field (e.g., Fernandez -Czech A2/B1).

Send the confirmation of payment from the bank by email to the appropriate course lecturer immediately after the payment.

The course fee is non-refundable.

The course will open provided there are at least 12 participants. If the course does not open, you will be notified by email, and the money will be returned to the same account from which it was sent.

For more information and registration, contact the course instructor.

Course Instructor: Martina Jarkovská jarkovska@pef.czu.cz

Suggested course material: Čeština Expres A2/1 and Čeština Expres A2/2 (handouts from the suggested textbooks will be provided)